

Philosophers and Ideas Collection

Over thirty films explore the lives and works of some of the most important thinkers of the past two centuries.

The Philosophers and Ideas Collection features acclaimed documentaries that explore the lives, work and thought of a diverse group of people whose ideas have shaped our world today.

The films include discussions with and profiles of important continental philosophers like Michel Foucault, Jacques Derrida, and Gilles Deleuze (and Karl Marx!); thinkers whose ideas have shaped the environmental movement like Arne Naess, Rachel Carson, Gregory Bateson, Thomas Berry, James Lovelock and Lynn Margulis; philosophers of science like Donna Haraway; and the radical thought of theorists as diverse as Judith Butler, Noam Chomsky, Antonio Negri and Edward Said.

The Philosophers and Ideas Collection provides an enriching journey on the broad ocean of ideas. Films include (among others):

Edward Said: The Last Interview

Judith Butler

Capitalism

Donna Haraway

An Ecology of Mind

Lotman's World

Gaia

Thomas Berry

Symbiotic Earth

A Sense of Wonder

A Quest for Meaning

Derrida's Elsewhere

Marx Reloaded

Antonio Negri

Foucault Against Himself

Mille Gilles

